Arts Live is a year-round performance programme from the Dumfries & Galloway Arts Festival.

Featuring theatre, music, dance, comedy and spoken word, we have an exciting programme of performing arts events at the heart of communities across our region.

Explore our upcoming programme and look out for these logos:

NETWORK EVENT

This event is staged independently by a member of our local venue network. They stage the show, and we support its promotion as part of a region-wide tour within our programme.

SUPPORT for AMBITION

Support for Ambition is our initiative that enables local venues and artists to apply to present performance events in the region, and we provide financial, promotional, and advisory support.

ONLINE

This event will take place online as part of our D&G Arts at Home programme of events.

Fox and Hound presents
BECAUSE WE SAID WE POSTPONED

Fri 21st 7.30pm
 Clackmannan, DG10 9AP

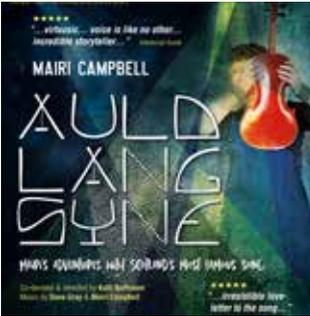

7.30pm
 Dumfries Arts Centre,
 Clackmannan, DG8 7HF

Price: £10 | Under 26: £5
Runtime: 70 mins
Ages: 14+

Have you ever had that one friend that annoys you to the point of distraction but who makes your heart lighter by just being there? This is a working class story of friendship.

A tender story of music and friendship. Jeanie, 7, meets new boy Tam, they bond over their love of music, it's a shame others don't feel the same. A childish promise leads to a life-long connection but not everyone's song plays out the same...

Please note: The play references rape and suicide in a working-class environment. (Unseen)

Mairi Campbell presents

AULD LANG SYNE

Fri 28th Jan 19:30
 CatStrand
 New Galloway
 Price: £10 | Under 26: £4

9:30
 ...s, Sanquhar, DG4 6BL
 Price: £10 | Under 26: £5
Runtime: 60 mins

Mairi Campbell's five star follow up show to acclaimed Pulse.

Mairi Campbell: Auld Lang Syne tells stories of her adventures with Scotland's most famous song - singing for US President Bill Clinton, a starring role in Sex and the City and a reinterpretation of the Robert Burns classic that changed her life.

Delivered with trademark wit, gentle charm and unparalleled musical ability, the sequel to 5 star Pulse, is a funny and heartfelt show that resonates with universal truths.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FRAGILE MALE EGO

presented by Jordan & Skinner

Mon 7th - Mon 14th Feb
 Online

Price: Pay What You Can (Min £5)
Runtime: 55 mins
Age: 12+

Captioned show is available

Andrea has been giving her lecture but it's not going well. Her previous events have been marred by protests and she's hoping the open-minded audience will hear her out.

The multi-award-winning Jordan & Skinner present their riotous and very funny solo show that cuts to the bone of the current conversation around gender politics. Following a hugely popular world premiere during the Fringe 2019, Dumfries & Galloway audiences can enjoy a very special return of the hit show, now reworked as a performance for the screen!

Please note: the film contains references to mental ill health and suicide.

Civic Digits presents

THE BIG DATA SHOW

Sat 19th Feb 15:00
 Online

Price: Pay What You Can (Min £5)
Runtime: 1 hr 5 mins

In 1984 Rupert Goodwins, a teenage ethical hacker, hacked the email account of Prince Philip. At a time when cybercrime didn't exist, he and his friends were prosecuted with (but not convicted of) forgery. This case formed the basis of today's cybercrime laws.

The Big Data Show is a groundbreaking, immersive theatre experience using performance, gaming and digital magic, which tells that story, and explores the importance of cybersecurity in today's digital world.

Suzi Cunningham presents

RULES TO LIVE BY / EIDOS

Fri 4th Mar 19:30
CatStrand, New Galloway, DG7 3RN

Price: £10 | Under 26: £5
Runtime: 60 mins

'Rules to Live By' explores conditioning, external influences, what shapes us through life and how we follow aspirations even if they are destructive. A celebration of transformation, a bid to be unforgotten, a dance of rules, constriction, sugar highs and suffocation, Rules to Live By is a rebellious aspiration to a hero's punk anarchy.

EIDOS is a tribute to Suzi's grandmother, who was a punk in-her-own-right. She is the hero, the stalwart, Suzi's personal Vivienne Westwood, the treasure hunter and the curio-with-a-cause.

Dumfries Youth Theatre presents

SUPERGLUE BY TIM CROUCH

Sat 12th & Sun 13th Mar 17:00
The Usual Place, Dumfries, DG1 1BZ

Price: £8

Dumfries Youth Theatre are taking part in their 4th National Theatre Connections festival.

Superglue tells the story of a group of climate activists at the funeral of a friend who died during a protest.

The play raises questions about peaceful versus violent action and how society dismisses the climate crisis.

Runtime: 45 mins
Ages: 5+

Odd Socks tells the story of Lil One who, along with their parent Big One, runs the sock laundrette.

One day, Lil One's life is put through the ringer when Big One falls in love with Postie. Suddenly, this perfect pair has become three and Lil One is left feeling like the odd one out. Distraught and lonely Lil One decides to run away.

That night as Lil One packs their bags they hear the cries of a single odd sock - Odd Sock. Odd Sock is also missing their pair and is feeling lost and alone.

TWO IN A BARREL

presented by Ruxy Cantiri
& Sarah Rose Graber

Sat 16th Apr 13:00
Moat Brae, Dumfries DG1 1EA

Price: Adult: £5 |
Child: £3 | Family: £12
Runtime: 45 mins
Ages: Families

Two in a Barrel is a clown-inspired, physical theatre performance for young audiences (ages 5+) about the waste we create, the destructive consequences of our habits, and co-existing in an environment with limited resources.

Two lively quirky best friends - Riri and Moku - are confined to a barrel sitting on top of an island of rubbish in the ocean. They love finding treasures in the vast waste that surrounds them but being in tight quarters means they face new challenges, like having to ration their food and learning to coexist. Danger arises when the waste around them continues to pile higher and threatens to cover them altogether.

LEARNING TO FLY

by James Rowland

Wed 22nd Jun 19.30
Venue: TBC

Thurs 23rd Jun 19:30
Port Logan Village Hall, DG9 9NG

Fri 24th Jun 19:30
Kirkcudbright Parish Hall, DG6 4DN

Price: £12 | Under 26 £6
Runtime: 70 mins

Ages: 13+ (some adult themes, references to drug use).

LEARNING TO FLY is the story of a remarkable friendship James made when he was a lonely, unhappy teenager – with the scary old lady who lived in the spooky house on his street.

Uplifting, big hearted and hilarious, this new one man show promises a glorious and irreverent evening with one of the UK's most acclaimed storytellers.
